Iceland Explorer

27th July to 10th August 2023

“Ice and fire” is commonly used to summarise Iceland - but in such a succinct phrase so much is lost. Its one of the most sparsely populated places in Europe, about the size of England, with only 320,00 people but on Iceland is Europe’s largest ice cap, its most powerful waterfall, the highest geyser, the largest puffin colonies, the newest islands, the biggest volcano, the list goes on. Iceland and its people will constantly surprise you, sometimes sombre and wild, sometimes hot and steamy but always so much more than just some of the most exciting off road driving in Europe. I’ve been to Iceland many times and it still fascinates me, it’s a young landscape, changing under natural forces that twist and batter the rocks constantly. Eruption’s form whole new landscapes, a lake that existed in 2009 was literally blown off the map in 2010 by the Eyjafjallajökull eruption. We will spend virtually the whole of our time in Iceland away from tarmac roads. On the interior gravel roads, only passable with 4x4 vehicles, we’ll ford deep glacial rivers, transect the great glacial plains of the interior, pass around the northern side of the Vatnajokull ice cap, the third largest mass of glacial ice in the world, to explore the icecaves at Kverkfjoll. We will drive up onto glaciers, search for volcanic glass blown from deep in the earth, watch for whales on the Arctic Ocean, bath in hot springs on a shore line crusted with ice, join in the famous runtur, super cool Reykjavik’s legendary pub run, walk on still steaming lava and see the famous Iceland Sagas come to life. Not to mention the waterfalls, the iceberg studded lagoons, the geysers, the active volcanoes, the midnight sun, the soaring seabird colonies, the lava tunnels plunging deep into the bowels of the earth - this is an expedition you’ll remember for a long time. We are offering two shipping options for this trip, a containerised option from Hull to Reykjavik and fly to collect your car, cleared and ready to go, perfect if you are tight on time.

Alternatively take the luxurious Smyril Line boats from Denmark via the Faroes and enjoy the journey.

Summary

Start point

Reykjavik

Two options –

(1) containerised option Hull Immingham and flight to Iceland

(2) Ferry option from Denmark to Seydisfjordur, Iceland and then drive to Reykjavik

Either option can be chosen including mixed leg/split options

Finish point

Reykjavik

Number of days

15 days, 15 nights on Iceland plus shipping/air transit time. Meet on 26th July

Approx. distance

2000 kilometres.

Road conditions

Mixture of sand, lava, pumice and gravel tracks, some graded and short sections of tarmac.

No' of vehicles

Maximum of 6 guest vehicles/12 adults plus support vehicles.

Accommodation used

Accommodation will be mainly in organised campsites with good toilet/shower facilities when available. Some sites will be wild sites set in the incomparable countryside. In bad weather then mountain huts can be used.

Specialist equipment - vehicle

A well maintained and serviced 4x4 vehicle fitted with underbody protection and a snorkel for deep fording. A CB radio must be fitted. Tyres of All Terrain tread patterns most suitable, MT's are OK and snow chains are not needed. A full set of recovery equipment (strops and shackles) is essential along with a spade. 2 additional fuel cans are needed to enable us to complete long periods away from filling stations. A winch is not essential.

Specialist equipment - camping

Either roof or ground tents are suitable; it can be very windy so ensure you have plenty of pegs for ground tents! We recommend a 'Thermorest' type thermal insulated mattress, if sleeping on the ground. Sleeping bags should be at least 3 season bags. Bring your own chairs, table, stove, pans, cutlery and utensils. As with the weather, clothing requirements vary – you will need a multi layered system with warm, windproof and waterproof clothing along with lighter clothing for warmer days.

Passport

Required.

Visa

Not needed for UK citizens.

Health

No special requirements beyond small first aid kit.

Cost of living

About the same as the UK but stock up with snacks and alcoholic drinks before leaving the UK. Credit cards are widely accepted, and most towns have an ATM.

Weather

Milder than you think but unpredictable and changeable. Inland near the main ice masses night temperatures can be several degrees lower than those shown for Reykjavik so we avoid camping near these. In the summer, day time temperatures can reach 20 ° C but days can be interspersed with wind, rain and misty spells when the temperature may fall to 10 ° C.

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Average daily temp
Max ° C	2	3	4	6	10	15	16	17	11	7	4	2
Min ° C	-2	-2	-1	1	4	7	9	8	6	3	0	-2
Rainfall mm	89	64	62	56	42	42	50	56	67	94	78	79

Food and Shopping

Food in Iceland is widely available and prices in supermarkets are only slightly higher than UK prices. Meals can be cooked individually or communally, the choice is yours. We can co-ordinate and assist you with food purchasing while in country.

Schedule and Pace

The route and timings are not fixed, we will be free to break journey, stop and explore, as you desire. We may also be guided by weather, in particular ice and snow conditions. We aim to be in the campsite between 16:00 and 17.00 on most days to allow us to relax and enjoy the experiences of the day. The daily distances driven vary due to the terrain and ground conditions but a typical day will be 2-3 hours driving in the morning, 1 hour for lunch and then a further 2-3 hours driving. Some days will be longer than this due to the distances to be driven.

Shipping

For either option we work with you and make all the bookings, except for your flights, on your behalf. We can customise either option to extend your stay on Iceland if desired. We'll be in Iceland when you arrive, having overseen the unloading and clearances so your vehicle is ready on arrival. The shipping options are more complicated than normal and we'll liaise closely with you at all stages. Contact us for more details but the following information should help you understand the options and plan accordingly. Do not book any flights without checking with us as the schedules may change.
